ADD E-Learning Tutorials:

Author, Sylvia S. Davison has taught systematic phonics to at-risk beginning readers for over 40 years (class: 18 yrs., one-to-one: 22 yrs.). She has developed this course to enhance direct instruction by teachers and parents using Go Phonics.

You'll learn techniques, strategies, ways to organize and save time. She explains concepts in simplified terms you can use with students.

Getting the strategies first hand and building instructor confidence:

This professional development course flows with the Go Phonics Teacher's Guide and program materials. Each segment online can be viewed before teaching a lesson. Review any segment whenever you need to. Lesson by lesson she explains, demonstrates, and shares her experiences. Filmed in her tutoring classroom, the information can be adapted to group instruction.

Go Phonics E-Learning data base includes over 7 hours of video in segments averaging 7-13 minutes, and free download printables for more practice. Watch a sampling from 4 tutorials: <http://gophonics.com/online-tutorials>

Purchase the Basic Kit or Program Package (Basic Kit & 50 Game Set), then order the subscription (at the same time or after receiving your materials). Program past purchasers contact us (validation of past purchase needed).
